

Code of Professional Conduct Commitment Form

The Code of Professional Conduct (COPC or “Code”) is a set of expectations and practices for practitioners of CMMI Institute Specializations, and for those operating under license or other applicable agreement with the CMMI Institute. The purpose of the Code is to establish appropriate standards of professional conduct for CMMI Institute employees, License Partners, Partner Business Points of Contact and sponsored CMMI Institute-Credentialed Individuals.

CMMI Institute requires all applicants for employment, Partner License Agreement, and Certification to commit to the Code as part of the application process. Please review the CMMI Institute Code of Professional Conduct online because all persons to whom the code applies are required to have knowledge of, and comply with: CMMI Institute Materials, Methods, policies and guidelines.
